Disclaimer & Limitations of Research

The client should take into consideration the following points before accomplishing a decision on the basis of report:

This report contains personal and sensitive information that has been furnished in strict confidence solely for the information of the Client for its request to AuthBridge Research Services Pvt. Ltd (here in after referred to as ARS) to conduct this research vide a legal contract and should only be used to verify the statements made by an individual for employment purposes. ARS disclaims any and all responsibilities or liabilities incurred as a result of use of the report contrary to the purpose agreed in contract or otherwise. This report cannot be reproduced in part or full without a formal approval from ARS.

The records are accurately reported as they were found at the source as on the date and time of verification, whether on a computer information system, retrieved by manual search, telephonic interviews or field work. ARS undertakes no responsibility for events or circumstances occurring after the date of completion of the research, verification and enquiries.

The report should be used in accordance with the applicable data protection laws. Except where required by law, no information provided in this report may be revealed directly or indirectly to any unauthorized third party/person.

ARS does not provide an opinion about the individual or the entity researched nor should it be considered a definitive pronouncement on the subject or as a recommendation. The information provided herein shall not be construed to constitute a legal opinion. Final verification of an individual's identity and fair use of these consumer reports are the user's responsibility. Client management shall be fully and solely responsible for applying independent judgment, with respect to the findings provided in this report, to make appropriate decisions in relation to the future course of action, if any. ARS shall not be responsible for the employment decision or any other consequences resulting from decisions based on information included in the report.

ARS has simply compiled the information including public records and/or data in a structured way for client's review. Data is incorporated from the E-Courts website, supreme court website and other online legal records. Although every effort has been made to assure accuracy and exhaustiveness, ARS cannot act as the guarantor of the information's accuracy or completeness. The records contained in this report are compiled from various databases that are updated at defined, undefined or infrequent intervals, and therefore, may or may not have the most current information. The desktop search is limited to information available in public domain in English Language only. These databases are not owned or updated by ARS and therefore ARS has no control over the frequency of their updation.

ARS neither warrants nor vouches nor authenticates the reliability of the information contained herein. ARS has compiled information that it has gathered from various third party sources. While all reasonable care is taken while identifying the independent sources, ARS cannot ensure the reliability and credibility of these sources. The report has been prepared basis the facts reported to ARS. Under no circumstances shall ARS be liable for any loss or damage of whatsoever nature, arising from information being withheld or concealed or misrepresented by any person/agency to which information requests were made by ARS. ARS reserves the right to amend the report where additional information or documentation is made available impacting the facts in the report post publishing the report.

ARS works with exact and/or partial matches with constraints of identifiable data points on various databases it uses. Absence of a match does not mean that there is no litigation or regulatory action involving the entity or the individual. Where searches are conducted using online databases, complete and/or partial name matches are reported if with the information available on the source data, researchers are able to tally with the provided information for the candidate.

Where Criminal Record Check is conducted either through online databases or through Police Records or through Law Firms, there is a possibility of not finding criminal records in the name of the individual where address verification (for Current/ Previous/ Permanent) is either not initiated for any reason including but not limited to non-disclosure of an address by the candidate or is discrepant as in such case the individual may never have resided at the address.

Under appropriate statutory frameworks including IT Act 2000, you are advised secure storing of this report and its destruction once it has been used for the purpose for which it was intended.

You can mail us at compliance@authbridge.com for any clarifications.
